Dear Miss [redacted]

Further to our telephone conversation this morning, I am enclosing Mr. Thornburg's letter of introduction and Mr. Yalman's card.

If it is possible to arrange an appointment for Mr. Yalman to see Mr. Dulles, perhaps you would be kind enough to call me at Hobart 2-3134 and I shall pass the message on.

With many thanks.

Yours sincerely,

Lynn Sharp

Dear Allen - I picked up your letter as I left Bolinas this morning. Thanks.

Leila and I expect to be at the Westway (Madison at 69th) from 15-25 May, and to spend a day or two of that period in Washington. When would be the best time for a cup of tea with Cleaver and you - and perhaps five minutes with [redacted] As retired country folk we have no fixed plans - beyond a return trip through Canada. Drop me a line at the Westway, Cleaver - May
